KATRINA CORBEIL

Mezzo Soprano

Born into a family of professional opera singers, mezzo soprano, Katrina Corbeil possesses many fine artistic qualities.

A graduate of the Saint Hyacinthe College in 1991 majoring in theater with a "Diploma of Excellence", Katrina Corbeil began her artistic career as an actress and has made appearances in television productions and cinema.

Katrina began her classical vocal studies with France Dion and continues her voice training with the bass-baritone of international reputation, Claude Corbeil. Her vocal qualities, her musicality, her versatility and a very strong stage presence allow her to distinguish herself in many singing styles: opera, operetta, Broadway and the interpretation of popular songs. In 1996 Katrina was awarded the Second Prize in the "Classical Vocal Category" of the NATS Competition (National Association of Teachers of Singing) and in 1995 and 1996 she won the First Prize in the "Popular Vocal Category" in the same competition and was a finalist in 1997 in the "Concours de la Montérégie".

Katrina has been invited as a soloist for many musical events and classical concerts. In the fall of 2004 she portrayed the title role in Jacques Offenbach's La Périchole with l'Opéra Bouffe de Québec in Montreal and during the summer of 2005 she appeared as Siebel in Opéra Théâtre de Rimouski's production of Faust. Upcoming for Ms. Corbeil is a theatre production of Jean Genet's Les Bonnes with staging by Jacques Rossi in which she plays the role of Madame at the Théâtre de la Chapelle in Montreal. She debuts with l'Opéra de Québec as Kate (Madama Butterfly), and will sing a recital in the Bravopéra series in Rimouski. During the summer of 2006, Katrina will return to Opéra Théâtre de Rimouski to portray the title role in Carmen.

A versatile artist, Katrina founded in 1996 the duo Les Amoureux du Vieux Port with Pierre Trépanier, singer-guitarist. With two recordings and many excellent critics, they travel the Province of Quebec performing for a wide variety of special events.
