

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Eric Thériault, tenor

In 2007 Mr. Thériault participated in the Santa Fe Opera Apprentice Singer Program where he received the Campbell Wachter Memorial Award from the company. Included in his varied repertoire is the world premiere of Young Caesar, an opera by Lou Harrison, soloist for the North-American premiere of Telemann's oratorio Jauchzet Jubilier und Singe, and received a Quebec Opus Award for his participation in the BachToTango concert.

He has appeared frequently with Opéra de Québec as Alfred (Die Fledermaus), Bobinet (La Vie Parisienne), Malcolm (Macbeth), Gherardo (Gianni Schicchi), Remendado (Carmen), and Schmidt (Werther). His great acting and comedic skills, paired with a vibrant voice from top to bottom, allow him to portray brilliantly certain major operetta roles. Amongst these roles, Ouf 1er (L'Étoile), Falsa-Cappa (Les Brigands), and Alfred (Die Fledermaus) have become signature roles.

During his career, Mr. Thériault has performed with many Canadian and international ensembles - Santa Fe Opera, San Francisco Bach Choir, Opéra de Québec, Orchestre de la Garde Républicaine de Paris, Ensemble Parallèle, Domaine Forget, Canada Musical Youth, Lamèque International Baroque Festival, Orford Festival, Orchestre Symphonique du Saguenay-Lac-St-Jean, Société d'art lyrique du Royaume, Orchestre symphonique de Trois-Rivières, Opéra Bouffe du Québec, Chœur Classique de Montréal, Symphony New-Brunswick, Orchestre Symphonique du Nouveau Monde, and Orchestre Métropolitain. Most recently, he took part in the Lanaudière Festival's rendition of Parsifal, conducted by Maestro Yannick Nézet-Séguin, and sang Monostatos in Robert Lepage's new production of Die Zauberflöte. In the upcoming season, he will make his first appearance with Opéra de Montréal (Remendado), and will perform the role of Der Steuermann in François Girard's new production of Wagner's Der Fliegende Holländer, presented by Festival Opera de Québec.

Scan to visit Artist's webpage
<https://www.micartists.com/eric-theriault/>